CITY OF HARTFORD SHOWS SUPPORT FOR LOCAL FILMMAKERS PROVIDING JOB OPPORTUNITIES

(June 10, 2005)--- Hartford Mayor Eddie Perez applauds the job opportunities provided to women and minority cast and crew members of a new independent feature film being produced by "Outta Left Field Productions". The movie entitled "INDESCRETION" is scheduled to begin filming on June 11th, 2005 at various locations throughout Hartford.

Mayor Perez says, "It is wonderful when the doors are opened for those who traditionally have not been given as many opportunities to work both in front of the camera and behind the scenes. The City of Hartford is proud to cooperate with filmmakers Anthony Colon and Ivan Velez in hopes of making their dreams of making a successful film, come true."

The Mayor adds, "Hartford has a progressive attitude when it comes to business and our diverse history, culture, entertainment, and architecture can provide a superb setting for movie making. We look forward to working with the state in continuing to provide more of these opportunities--- especially when it comes to nurturing homegrown talent."

Producer Anthony Colon says, “We are very excited to have the support of the great City of Hartford with its rich diversity and avid attention to the arts. This City has a character all its own.”
